Lauren Mitchell on 'Sunday Night Sports Party'

Dual World Championship silver medalist Lauren Mitchell will be the very special guest on this weekend's edition of the 'Sunday Night Sports Party' from 9pm on Melbourne's 24/7 Sports Radio Station, 1116 SEN.

Mitchell will be chatting to host Mark Franklin about her experiences in London and how things have changed for her since the event.

In placing second in both the balance beam and the floor, Mitchell became the first ever Australian gymnast to win multiple medals at the same world class event and is now the first Aussie female to medal in an individual apparatus final.

No Australian athlete has ever placed higher than Mitchell at a gymnastics World Championships.

To celebrate her efforts, Gymnastics Australia (in conjunction with WCSN) is offering its dedicated community a very special opportunity to relive all of the action from London's O2 Arena.

By following the links to WCSN from the Gymnastics Australia website (www.gymnastics.org.au), you can watch both of Mitchell's silver medal winning performances AND Prasanth Sellathurai's bronze medal effort PLUS all four days of finals competition for a mere $5.95.

That includes 1 month of on demand video access to:

- All-Around Finals - Men's (215mins)
- All-Around Finals - Women's (151mins)
- Apparatus Finals Day One (119mins)
- Apparatus Finals Day Two (272mins)

If in or near Melbourne you can tune in to the interview on 1116AM.

If outside of this area then you can still listen live by visiting the SEN website (www.sen.com.au) and clicking the "listen now" button in the top right corner.
